MONETARY JUDGMENT AND CONSUMER REDRESS

VI.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that judgment in the amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) is hereby entered in favor of the Commission and against Michael Howell, and that judgment in the amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) is hereby entered in favor of the Commission and against Gregory Geremesz, for consumer redress. Both judgments shall be paid as follows:

A. Prior to signing this Stipulated Final Order, each of the Stipulating Defendants shall have placed into escrow with counsel the full amount of the judgment entered against him.

B. Payment shall be made within ten (10) days from the date of service of this Order. Payment shall be made by certified check or other guaranteed funds payable to and delivered to the Commission, or by wire transfer in accord with instructions provided by the Commission.

C. All funds paid pursuant to this Order shall be deposited into a fund administered by the Commission or its agent to be used for equitable relief, including but not limited to consumer redress, and any attendant expenses for the administration of such equitable relief.

D. In the event that the Commission in its sole discretion determines that direct redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or funds remain after redress is completed, the Commission may apply any remaining funds for such other equitable relief (including consumer information remedies) as it determines to be reasonably related to the Stipulating Defendants' practices alleged in the Complaint. Any funds not used for such equitable relief shall be deposited to the United States Treasury as disgorgement. The Stipulating Defendants shall have no right to challenge the Commission's choice of remedies under this Paragraph or the manner of distribution chosen by the Commission. No portion of any payments under the judgment herein shall be deemed a payment of any fine, penalty, or punitive assessment.

E. The Stipulating Defendants relinquish all dominion, control, and title to the funds paid to the Commission, for use according to the terms of this Order. The Stipulating Defendants shall make no claim to or demand for the return of the funds, directly or indirectly, through counsel or otherwise; and in the event of bankruptcy of any defendant, the Stipulating Defendants acknowledge that the funds are not part of the debtor's estate, nor does the estate have any claim or interest therein.

F. In accordance with 31 U.S.C. § 7701, the Stipulating Defendants are hereby required, unless they have done so already, to furnish to the Commission their respective taxpayer identifying numbers (social security numbers or employer identification numbers), which shall be used for the purposes of collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of the Stipulating Defendants' relationship with the government.

RIGHT TO REOPEN

VII.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

A. The Commission's agreement to this Order requiring that the Stipulating Defendants be liable for less than the full amount of consumer injury is expressly premised upon the truthfulness, accuracy and completeness of their sworn financial statements and supporting documents submitted to the Commission: (1) the Financial Statement of Individual Defendant Gregory Ryan Geremesz, and the attachments thereto; the Financial Statement of Individual Defendant Michael Leland Howell, and the attachments thereto; the Financial Statement of Corporate Defendant Healthy Solutions, LLC and the attachments thereto; and the Financial Statement of Corporate Defendant Global Solutions, LLC, and the attachments thereto, all of which were submitted on August 5, 2004; and (2) the information and documents submitted through counsel for the Stipulating Defendants on January 27, 2005, February 17, 2005, March 16, 2005, April 22, 2005, April 26, 2005, and May 25, 2005. Such financial statements and supporting documents contain material information upon which the FTC relied in negotiating and agreeing to this Order.

B. If, upon motion by the Commission, this Court finds that any of the Stipulating Defendants has failed to disclose any material asset, or made any other material misrepresentation or omission in the financial statements and related documents described above, the Court shall enter judgment against that Stipulating Defendant and in favor of the Commission, in the amount of two million seven hundred thousand dollars ($2,700,000) in U.S. currency, minus any payments previously made under Part VI of this Order, which amount would be rendered immediately due and payable. For the purposes of this paragraph, each of the Stipulating Defendants waives any right to contest the allegations in the Complaint filed in this action.

C. Proceedings under this Part VII are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any civil or criminal remedies that may be provided by law, including any other proceedings the Commission may initiate to enforce this Order.

COOPERATION WITH COMMISSION COUNSEL

VIII.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Stipulating Defendants must, in connection with this action or any subsequent investigations regarding the transactions or occurrences that are the subject of the Commission's Complaint, cooperate in good faith with the Commission's reasonable requests for documents and testimony. The Stipulating Defendants shall appear at such places and times as the Commission shall reasonably request for interviews, conferences, pretrial discovery, review of documents, and for such other matters, after written notice to the Stipulating Defendants and their counsel of record. If requested in writing by the Commission, the Stipulating Defendants shall appear and provide truthful testimony in any civil trial, deposition or other proceeding regarding the transactions or occurrences that are the subject of the Commission's Complaint, without the service of a civil investigative demand or subpoena, but subject to reimbursement for travel and time as required under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for such appearances. The Stipulating Defendants also shall produce such documents and information in a manner as may be reasonably requested by the Commission, after written notice to the Stipulating Defendants and to their counsel of record. Provided, that nothing in this Part VIII constitutes or will be deemed to constitute a waiver by Howell or Geremesz of his constitutional rights under the Fifth Amendment.

NOTICE TO RESELLERS, DISTRIBUTORS, AND SALES AGENTS

IX.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Stipulating Defendants shall:

The Stipulating Defendants shall send this notice within twenty (20) days after first engaging in any transaction concerning any covered product. This mailing shall not include any other document or enclosure.

C. The Stipulating Defendants may, as an alternative to first class mailing required in Parts IX. A and B, make Exhibits A and B available by email to any distributor, reseller, or sales agent for whom the Stipulating Defendants have a valid email address.

D. The Stipulating Defendants, shall, within thirty (30) days of providing notice pursuant to Parts IX. A, B, or C, secure from each distributor, reseller, or sales agent to whom a notice has been sent a signed and dated statement acknowledging receipt of such and, as to any distributor, reseller, or sales agent who has not provided such a statement, shall not sell or distribute any covered product to any such distributor, reseller, or sales agent, accept any orders for any covered product submitted by or on behalf of such distributor, reseller or sales agent, or pay any commission, bonus, or other compensation to any such distributor, reseller, or sales agent. The Stipulating Defendants shall retain the original of each acknowledgment for a period of five (5) years following the date of entry of this Order.

E. Terminate any distributor, reseller, or sales agent within ten (10) days after the Stipulating Defendants become aware that the distributor, reseller, or sales agent has used any advertisement, packaging, or promotional material that contains any representation prohibited by this Order after receipt of the notice required by subparagraph A or B of this Part.

F. Provide to the Commission, within thirty (30) days of entry of this Order for the notices required by subparagraph A and within ten (10) days after such notice has been sent for the notices required by subparagraph B, the name and address of each and every distributor, reseller, and sales agent to whom the notices attached as Exhibits A and B are sent.

(If mailed, to be printed on Letterhead of Healthy Solutions, LLC)

Dear [reseller, distributor or agent]:

Our records indicate that you have been a reseller, distributor, or agent of Healthy Solutions, LLC. This letter is to inform you that Healthy Solutions, Gregory Geremesz, and Michael Howell recently settled a civil dispute with the Federal Trade Commission regarding advertising for Supreme Greens with MSM. Among other things, we have agreed to notify resellers, distributors, and agents of the settlement.

In its complaint, the FTC alleged that advertisements for Supreme Greens made a number of false or unsubstantiated claims. Healthy Solutions, Gregory Geremesz, and Michael Howell denied the FTC's allegations and did not admit to any wrongdoing or violation of law. Nonetheless, in order to resolve this matter, we agreed not to represent in the future that Supreme Greens or [any current greens product] is an effective treatment, cure, or preventative for cancer, heart disease, diabetes or arthritis; that it will cause significant weight loss (such as up to 4 pounds per week and up to 80 pounds in 8 months); or that it can be taken safely by pregnant women, children, and/or any person taking any type of medication.

We also agreed not to misrepresent that any dietary supplement can prevent, treat, or cure any disease or that Alejandro Guerrero is a medical doctor, Doctor of Oriental Medicine, or Ph.D., or to make any representation about the health benefits, performance, efficacy, or safety of any product or service unless that representation is true and substantiated by competent and reliable scientific evidence.

We must request that you not use or distribute advertising, packaging, or promotional materials containing any of the representations prohibited by our agreement with the FTC. If you do, we will no longer be able to do business with you.

To continue doing business with you, we must receive a signed acknowledgment that you have received this notice. If you wish, you may sign below and fax or mail the form to us, but please keep a copy for your files. If you have discontinued doing business with us, you need not sign or return this letter. If you have any questions or want a copy of the FTC order, please let us know.

Dear [reseller, distributor or agent]:

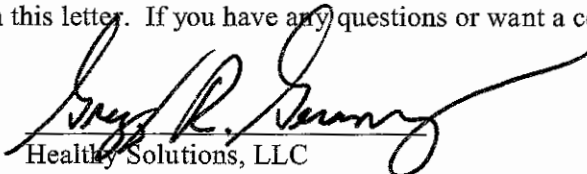

You recently became a reseller, distributor, or agent of Healthy Solutions, LLC. ("Healthy Solutions"). This letter is to inform you that on [date], Healthy Solutions, Gregory Geremesz, and Michael Howell settled a civil dispute with the Federal Trade Commission regarding advertising for Supreme Greens with MSM ("Supreme Greens"). Among other things, we agreed to notify resellers, distributors, and agents of the settlement.

In its complaint, the FTC alleged that advertisements for Supreme Greens made a number of false or unsubstantiated claims. Healthy Solutions, Gregory Geremesz, and Michael Howell denied the FTC's allegations and did not admit to any wrongdoing or violation of law. Nonetheless, in order to resolve this matter, we agreed not to represent in the future that Supreme Greens or [any current greens product] is an effective treatment, cure, or preventative for cancer, heart disease, diabetes or arthritis; that it will cause significant weight loss (such as up to 4 pounds per week and up to 80 pounds in 8 months); or that it can be taken safely by pregnant women, children, and/or any person taking any type of medication.

We also agreed not to misrepresent that any dietary supplement can prevent, treat, or cure any disease or that Alejandro Guerrero is a medical doctor, Doctor of Oriental Medicine, or Ph.D., or to make any representation about the health benefits, performance, efficacy, or safety of any product or service unless that representation is true and substantiated by competent and reliable scientific evidence.

We must request that you not use or distribute advertising, packaging, or promotional materials containing any of the representations prohibited by our agreement with the FTC. If you do, we will no longer be able to do business with you.

To continue doing business with you, we must receive a signed acknowledgment that you have received this notice. If you wish, you may sign below and fax or mail the form to us, but please keep a copy for your files. If you have discontinued doing business with us, you need not sign or return this letter. If you have any questions or want a copy of the FTC order, please let us know.
